NOTE AND ORDER

COMPLAINT CASE NO. 2 OF 2019

06.03.2020

Mr. Iboyaima Sharma, learned counsel entered appearance on behalf of the Respondent Nos. 6 and 7. He further submits before the Lokayukta that written comments on behalf of Respondent Nos. 6 and 7 had already been filed after furnishing a copy of it to the complainant. Mr. Dijen, learned counsel appearing for the respondent No. 3 also files the comment.

This Lokayukta is of the view that for the ends of justice and also for better understanding of the comments filed by the different respondents, it will be better that the respondents should exchange their comments. Accordingly, respondent Nos. 3 and respondent Nos. 6 and 7 who had already filed their comments are directed to furnish a copy of their comment to the learned counsels appearing for the other respondents.

Mr. Th. Modhu Singh, learned counsel appearing for the respondent Nos. 1, 2, 4 and 5 submitted at bar that in spite of best endeavour to file the comment on behalf of respondent Nos. 1, 2, 4 and 5, the comment could not be prepared completely because of his some personal problem. Such being the situation, he prays for further one week's time for filing comment on behalf of respondent Nos. 1, 2, 4 and 5.

Prayer for seeking time for filing comment on behalf of respondent Nos. 1, 2, 4 and 5 is granted subject to the payment of Rs. 2000/- (Rupees two thousand) only as cost, which shall be paid to Mr. Ch. Corneleus, Complainant in the course of the day. One week's time, as last chance, is granted to respondent Nos. 1, 2, 4 and 5 for filing their comment. Further, because of the circumstantial nature of the case, it is cautioned that if the respondent Nos. 1, 2, 4 and 5 fail to file their comment within the time granted as such, further proceeding of this case will be proceeded without their comment.

The Inspector, attached to the Inquiry Wing of this Lokayukta, who had conducted the Preliminary Inquiry is to provide authenticated copies of the Work Agreement to the learned counsel appearing for the respondents within 2 (two) days.

List this case on 16.03.2020 at 11:30 a.m.

Registry is directed to furnish a copy of this order to the learned counsels appearing for the parties.
