NOTE AND ORDER

1. Respondent Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19 and 21 had filed the joint objections/comments against the Preliminary Inquiry Report submitted by the Inquiry Officer Shri Shankar, Addl. SP.
2. Mr. Juno Rahmans, Learned counsel stated that Respondent Nos. 11 & 13 had engaged he and his chamber colleagues as their counsels and further prayed for one week's time for filing separate comments/objections on behalf of the Respondent Nos. 11 and 13 to the Preliminary Inquiry Report submitted by the Inquiry Officer.
3. Mr. A. Arunkumar Singh, Learned counsel appearing for all the Respondents has no objections to the engagement of Mr. Juno Rahman and his chamber colleagues as counsels for the respondent Nos. 11 & 13 by filing vakalatnama.
4. Mr. L. Swananda Sharma, Learned counsel appearing for the complainant raised objections to the prayer of Mr. Juno Rahmans who entered appearance on behalf of the Respondent No. 11 & 13 on the ground that the proceeding of the present case will be delayed because of such arrangement amongst the respondents.
5. After taking into consideration of all the submissions made by the learned counsels, it would be appropriate to give at least one week's time to the respondent No. 11 & 13 to file their separate/joint objections/comments to the Preliminary Inquiry Report subject to the payment of Rs. 4000/- as costs to the complainant. The respondent Nos. 11 & 13 could file their comments/objections only after payment of the said costs to the complainant.
6. List this case for filing of the comments/ objections of the respondent Nos. 11 and 13 and also for further hearing on 6-10-2021.
