

COMPLAINT CASE NO. 1 OF 2022

04.01.2024

[1] All the parties are represented by their respective counsels.

[2] Submission of Mr. P. Ibomcha Singh, learned counsel for Respondent No. 1 is heard at length. His argument is almost concluded but he further submits that he may be given one more day to submit an additional written argument after furnishing a copy of it to all the counsels appearing for the parties.

[3] As prayed for, one day's time is granted to Mr. P. Ibomcha Singh, learned counsel of Respondent No. 1 to submit his written argument to sum up all his oral arguments made before us. After going through his written argument, if we need some clarification, we may ask him for clarification.

[4] Mr. N. Suresh, learned counsel for Respondent Nos. 4 and 5 submits at bar that he will submit his case of Respondent Nos. 4 and 5 tomorrow. He further states his submission may not be long.

[5] It is made clear that we are giving ample opportunity to the learned counsels appearing for the parties to submit their case but it does not mean that they will be allowed to submit the same point repeatedly.

[6] Hearing will continue tomorrow i.e. 05.01.2024.
