

COMPLAINT CASE NO. 6 OF 2022

10.01.2024

1. None appears for the party.
2. Judgment and order comprising of 30 pages in separate sheet pronounced in open court.
3. The operative portion of judgment and order is as under :

“For the foregoing discussions, we are of the considered view that there is no material for not accepting the Preliminary Inquiry Report and also there is no materials directing for further preliminary inquiry. As stated above, there is no prayer from any of the parties in the present case for further preliminary inquiry. It is equally well settled law that there cannot be no second complaint/second FIR as held by the Apex Court in T.T. Anthony’s case (supra). In this given circumstances, we have no alternative except to close the present complaint and in the result the Complaint is closed and disposed of accordingly.”
